TV and social media

We have been on camera repeatedly this year to share our story, the staggering health figures and challenges in the region. Being vulnerable and honest.

We are not the experts, we're just like you.

We are building the next iconic brand in the beverage space

Our long term goal is to build tens of production facilities around the middle east and perhaps around the world; and inspire a movement of health and wellbeing.

Join us on this journey.

We are incredibly excited about our future!

Thank you,
